Continue Reading List of Filipino Verbs (Pandiwa) Sheets posted here to help practice student skills in determining grammatically strained Filipino verbs (panahunan o aspekto ng pandiwa), classification of verbs according to their grammatical stresses, and conjugation of Philippine verbs (pagbahay ng pandiwa). Students in early classes enter in three grammatical time Filipino verbs: panahunang pangnagdaan/aspekto ng naganap/aspekto ng perpekito (past time) panahunang pangkasalukuyan/aspekto ng nagaganap/aspekto ng imperpekito (presently tense) panahunang panghinaharap/ aspekto ng gagaganap na lamang/aspekto ng kontemplatibo (future time) in sixth grade. Students are introduced to another grammatical tense which panahunang katatapos or aspekto ng katatapos. The verbs in this grammatical tension imply that the action has just been done or completed. The prefix (unlapi) is added to the root word and repeats the first syllable (or first two letters) of the root word. Below are examples of verbs in this grammatical tension. kasasalita (just mentioned) kagagaling (just came from) kainom (just drunk) kaaalis (only left) ...
